C. C. Pinckney Esqr

July 3. 1805.

My Dear Guardian.

I am not well this morning & have, besides, nothing to do which I can anxious to finish. I shall therefore stay at home, but be most happy to see you, and arrange about to morrow, if you will send me a Card. Yrs

Brisbane

will be delighted to see you to dinner at two so come & have a chat
with me.

Yours truly
